THE NEW CUBAN VOICE

Ibrahim Ferrer Jr. is following his father footsteps in every way... as his father was the absolute icon of the Buena Vista Social Club. He has emerged as a distinguished figure in today's modern contemporary music.

Since his early childhood he has immersed himself in his rich Cuban musical inheritance, as he accompanied his father and participated in the creation of the album and movie Buena Vista Social Club. This vast experience, not only left their mark on him in the World of music but also a strong impact on his personal life as he chose to follow his passion for music as a career.

Ibrahim Jr. Has already achieved four albums which have gained him great notoriety, especially the second one (El son de su homenaje) in English it would be "The 'son' of his homage". As also he has received the prestigious prize of Carlos Gardel as the BEST TODAY'S NEW ARTIST album of 2008. His latest album launched is "IBRAHIM SINGS TO FERRER", this is a moving tribute to his father and his an enormous praise to him, as he was never able to sing by his side. In this álbum reinvents the classical Cuban tunes and songs fusing them into a fresh and new form of Afro origin, Latin Jazz and Worldwide music... showing thus his versatile musical abilities which transcend musical boundaries of today. continues to make an indelible mark on the Latin American music scene.
